MINUTE FOR MISSION – Camp Gilmont

Reverend Kenny Rigoulot

GATHERING AROUND THE WORD

CALL TO WORSHIP

(The Lector’s readings are excerpts from Isaiah 55 and the responsive readings are excerpts from Psalm 65.)

Everyone who thirsts, come to the waters

O you who answer prayer! To you all flesh shall come.

Incline your ear, and come to me; listen, so that you may live

Happy are those whom you choose and bring near to live in your courts. We shall be satisfied with the goodness of your house, your holy temple.

See, you shall call nations that you do not know, and nations that do not know you shall run to you, because of the LORD your God, the Holy One of Israel, for he has glorified you.

By awesome deeds you answer us with deliverance, O God of our salvation; you are the hope of all the ends of the earth and of the farthest seas.

OPENING PRAYER

Almighty God, you are the creator and through your word creation came into existence. You gave us the words of the prophets and other people of God so that we might remember your mighty and merciful deeds. In your perfect time your word became flesh and dwelt among us.

Jesus Christ, through you, creation came into existence and yet you entered your creation to live with us, to die for us, and to rise from the dead so that we might inherit eternal life. You are the way, the truth, and the life – no one comes to the father except through you.

Holy Spirit, you are the wind that swept over the waters of creation, the breath that spoke the word at the beginning. You have inspired the prophets, apostles, and other people of God to write the scriptures and you inspired those that gathered these books into the Bible. You are able to make the scriptures come alive as you reveal God's love to us.

Holy Trinity, we give you thanks and praise for the gifts of creation, inspiration, and redemption. Amen.

*CALL TO CONFESSION

Isaiah 55 invites us to “Seek the LORD while he may be found, call upon him while he is near; let the wicked forsake their way, and the unrighteous their thoughts; let them return to the LORD, that he may have mercy on them, and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.” Let us confess our sins using the prayer printed in the bulletin, followed by our own silent confessions.

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Eternal God, you love us, but we have trouble loving you in return; you call us, but we are hard of hearing; you reveal yourself to us, but our eyelids are heavy; you lead us toward our neighbor, but we build walls around ourselves; you hate evil, injustice, and alienation, but we get used to them. Help us to see ourselves both as we are and as we might become. Draw us closer to you and our neighbors so we cannot help but hear your word, see you at work in the world, and do your will.

(A time for silence, reflection, and prayer.)

*ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Hear the good news! Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. He himself bore our sins in his body on the cross, that we might be dead to sin, and alive to all that is good. I declare to you in the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven. Amen.

*SHARING IN THE PEACE OF CHRIST

Since God has forgiven us in Christ, let us forgive one another, accept forgiveness for ourselves and share in God's grace and peace. The peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

And also with you!

(Please exchange, by words and gesture, signs of peace and reconciliation.)

These stanzas are selected from a 20th-century English poetic version of an Irish monastic prayer dating to the 10th century or before. They are set to an Irish folk melody that has proved popular and easily sung despite its lack of repetition and its wide range.

The first woman to publish a collection of her own anthems, this author/composer has created in this hymn a sung prayer for illumination. It not only asks God to help us understand Scripture but also prays for the strength and courage to make God's love known to others.
